Brownman Electryc Trio
"JUGGERNAUT"
on Browntasauras Records

The BROWNMAN ELECTRYC TRIO, 2007 National Jazz Award winners for "Electric Jazz Group of the Year", release their highly anticipated debut CD - JUGGERNAUT on Browntasauras Records, Brownman's own new label.

[Brownman was on Justin Time Records since 2001, after winning the Montreal Jazz Festival's Grand Prix du Jazz Award, and left in 2007 to start his own label to house the 6 groups for which he is a leader & active composer for]

This record was recorded live, and mixed without any alterations, post-production or overdubs. Every sound you hear is exactly as the group produces it live. It is truly raw and unadulterated.

From the linear notes of Juggernaut, written by Daryl Angier:

... it is the music from Miles Davis's final electric period that most heavily informs the Brownman Electryc Trio's musical philosophy. This is not to say that the Trio is simply aping the Davis band from this period. Brownman has been far too concerned with developing his own individual sound throughout his career to ever let that happen. Rather, the Electryc Trio carries forward Davis's idea of making jazz music compelling and relevant to contemporary audiences by distilling it through the cultural touchstones of the day. Davis's touchstones included Sly Stone and Jimi Hendrix, and later, Michael Jackson and Cyndi Lauper, whereas Brownman's are artists of his own generation such as A Tribe Called Quest, Mos Def, Aphex Twin & Squarepusher...

JazzOnline.com writes:

Acclaimed trumpeter Brownman Ali's eclectic powerful electrified trio captures the essence of the later years in Miles Davis' life, his electric period, without imitation. Brownman's ELECTRYC TRIO is uniquely his own, yet echoes with the sounds of 'Bitches Brew' and 'In a Silent Way' right down to Miles' use of electronics while still managing to stay grounded in the sounds of today. Clearly paying apt tribute to Brownman's NYC mentor Randy Brecker, they are a truly impressive and energized modern jazz outfit."

"Brownman... one of the next great voices in the new generation of jazz improvisers."

-- Randy Brecker, multiple Grammy winning jazz trumpet legend & long-time mentor to Brownman

Called "Canada's preeminent jazz trumpeter" by NYC's Village Voice and considered one of the most acclaimed improvisers residing in Canada, Brownman, born on the small Caribbean island of Trinidad, is the multiple award winning NYC-schooled protégé to his teacher - Grammy-winning trumpet legend Randy Brecker. In the spirit of supreme trumpet genre-crossing visionaries such as Brecker and Miles Davis, he tirelessly leads and composes actively for no less than 6 ensembles of his own. He is also a musical director and/or featured soloist in countless other groups; testament to his unparalleled diversity of musical vision and skills making him one of Canada's most decorated jazz artists and a highly in demand session call for both Universal and Sony/BMG recording studios in forms of music ranging from be-bop to hip-hop. As a featured soloist he has appeared with Canada's leading Latin, urban, hiphop, reggae, island and DJ artists in addition to his foundational jazz milieu. With just under 300 recording credits to his name - many of these albums having won or been nominated for Junos (Canada's Grammy) - he is considered to be one of the most unique and provocative improvising trumpet players on the scene today. He is widely regarded as a vanguard for the evolution of jazz in Canada.

As a leader, he is best known for his work with his multi-award winning latin-jazz-urban ensemble CRUZAO. They have toured Canada's jazz festival and club circuit extensively, winning the 2001 Montreal Jazz Fest's coveted "Grand Prix du Jazz Award" leading to his being signed to the prestigious Justin Time Records label, simultaneous to Brownman winning a CBC-Galaxie "Rising Star" award. The subsequent 2002 release of "Shades Of Brown" would rocket to #1 on Canada's jazz charts and remain there for 3 months as CRUZAO toured internationally. Brownman would be awarded a National Jazz Award for "Composer of the Year" for the tunes he composed on that same recording. Europe welcomed the BROWNMAN AKOUSTIC TRIO in 2002 & 2003 and the BROWNMAN ELECTRYC TRIO in 2004 as the groups toured that continent and recorded 2 records released on European labels. 2005 would see extensive Canadian touring in early months of the year and the later with a South American tour beginning in Cuba. At the personal invitation of legendary pianist Chucho Valdes, he would represent Canada at the Havana Jazz Festival; leading CRUZAO HAVANA comprised of an all-Cuban rhythm section featuring members of the essential Afro-Cuban ensemble IRAKERE performing original Brownman compositions as recorded by CRUZAO. This performance marked the beginning of a two month extensive tour of South and Central America concluding with a gig with jazz saxophone legend GARY BARTZ in Belize and a recording session in Cuba with the luminous timba group CHISPA Y LOS COMPLICES. 2006 was a busy year and included 7 national and international tours, a multitude of recording sessions and appearances with such legends as legendary rapper GURU, pop superstar NELLY FURTADO & NYC Brazilian harmonica icon HENDRIK MEURKENS.

From 2006 to 2010, Brownman was the featured soloist with the legendary New York City jazz-hip-hop artist GURU (of Gangstarr fame) for his JAZZMATAZZ ensemble (replacing Donald Byrd in that group), catalyzing his appearing on the cover of CODA magazine, Canada's most acclaimed jazz publication. In Dec 2009, Brownman would launched his own independent record label Browntasauras Records, with the BROWNMAN ELECTRYC TRIO (2007 National Jazz Award winners for "Electric Group of the Year") debut recording Juggernaut as its flagship release, along with re-issues of his entire back-catalog from other groups he leads.

Since returning to Canada from NYC, Brownman has been on the cutting edge of modern music in the nation for the last decade, winning multiple awards nationally, achieving international recognition while touring the globe.

Brownman also holds a degree in physics, a minor in philosophy, writes the brass column for Canadian Musician Magazine and is an often called upon international lecturer and clinician on such topics as "advanced jazz harmony", "hip-hop and the modern jazz improviser" & "latin rhythms for the jazz improviser".
