Stealing from both the jazz and calypso traditions, internationally acclaimed Trinidadian-born trumpet iconoclast Brownman Ali assembles his latest all Trinidadian crew, TEEFIN' TINGZ, for the ultimate musical heist. The target: the Great American Songbook. The plan: lift its melodies, snatch its harmonies, pocket its rhythms, and appropriate its soul — with each number stripped from the vault, smuggled through Trinidad's native grooves, and laundered into explosive soca, calypso, parang, rapso, and more. It's not just music — it's a high-stakes heist pulled off in broad daylight.
